GLOBAL MOBILITY

Global mobility has become an essential component of everyday businesses, enabling companies to expand their operations across borders to capitalise on new markets and growth opportunities.

At HW Fisher, we understand the complexities of global mobility and the unique challenges that come with expanding business operations across borders.

Whether it's ensuring compliance with tax regulations, minimising tax liabilities or optimising tax strategies, our team is committed to helping clients achieve their goals in a timely and cost-effective manner.

As part of our commitment to providing our clients with the best possible service, we are a proud member of the Leading Edge Alliance (LEA), an extensive network of international accounting and consulting firms, operating in multiple jurisdictions around the world. Our membership enables us to share knowledge and resources across borders, giving us access to a wealth of expertise and experience that we can draw upon to help clients succeed in today's rapidly changing global marketplace.

The Leading Edge Alliance (LEA) is the second-largest international professional association of independently owned accounting and consulting firms, and the largest in the US. It is an alliance of closely aligned firms helping each other achieve common goals. LEA Global firm members know the right people to contact within the alliance to find the best expert in an unfamiliar industry or geographic area for our clients.

We are a major contributor to the LEA network and are actively involved in its development. Through our membership of the LEA, we can help clients with business interests overseas, or who are expanding globally, by connecting them with top international firms with the best local knowledge.

We work collaboratively with LEA Global firms, with a strong focus on client service. The partner in the original engagement stays involved throughout the work to ensure you experience a seamless service. That connection provides consistency and intimate client knowledge – a practice indicative of the value LEA Global places on the qualities of thought leadership, in-depth knowledge, expertise, and proactive advisory services.

As a firm, we historically have a strong leadership presence in the LEA. Our Managing Partner Andrew Rich has been a member of the Global Board since March 2022.

Our partners have worked alongside a large number of the partners of the LEA firms. We regularly attend international conferences which are invaluable in providing an international awareness that ultimately benefits our clients.

A world map illustrating the global distribution of the genus Euphorbia. The map uses a two-color scheme: blue for countries where the genus is present and light gray for countries where it is absent. The distribution is highly widespread, covering most of the Americas (including Alaska, Canada, and South America), Europe, Africa, Asia, and Australia. Notable gaps in distribution include Greenland, Iceland, and several countries in North America (such as the United States and Canada) and Europe (such as the United Kingdom and Ireland) that are colored light gray. The map also shows the presence of Euphorbia in various island groups and coastal regions.
